Currahee Club names GM

Lonnie Eberhard, CCM, has joined Currahee Club as its general manager, bringing with him more than 20 years of leadership experience in private club management.

Eberhard will oversee all Currahee Club golf club and property owner's association operations.

Eberhard has extensive experience with some of the region's top private communities and board positions.

His resume includes service as the 2004 president of the Florida Club Managers Association (CMA) and various execu-

Country Club in Naples, Fla., before being named the club's general manager. Eberhard began his career at Island Country Club in Marco Island, Fla., where he was appointed to general manager at age 28.

Previously home to golf legend Gene Sarazen, Island Country Club benefited from Eberhard's vision and attention to detail for 13 years.

These opportunities at top-shelf clubs have culled Eberhard's keen ability to offer refined five-star service, exceed financial goals and provide a one-of-a-kind experience for members, land to the Piedmont Driving Club in the heart of Atlanta secured my interest in this opportunity," said Eberhard.

"Currahee Club's reign as a preeminent national golf and lifestyle community is just beginning," he said.

Eberhard is an avid outdoorsman and enjoys sharing his love for adventure with his family.

He and his wife of 20 years, Susan, have two sons, ages 13 and 15. His favorite activities include fishing, kayaking and picnicking with his family.
