‘DIRECTOR OF ADVENTURE’ NEWEST ADDITION TO CURRAHEE CLUB
Extraordinary Recreational Pursuits Available to Community Residents and Guests

ATLANTA – September 15, 2006 – In a departure from the traditional Activities Director role, Currahee Club is revolutionizing resort living by hiring the community’s first Director of Adventure. As Director of Adventure, Ty Wheeler, a former member of the Air Force’s elite Special Operations unit, is responsible for creating unique activities that cater to the recreational and outdoor interests of the North Georgia community’s residents and guests.

With its championship golf course, location on Lake Hartwell, and proximity to Tallulah Gorge and the Blue Ridge Mountains, Currahee Club already offers a wide range of recreational pursuits. However, Currahee Club offers much more than initially meets the eye – and it is Ty’s job to ensure residents and their guests get the most out of life in and around the community. For example, Wheeler can arrange for a trip to his favorite secret swimming hole, a serene canoe trip or the best place to catch Trout. For those seeking more adventure, Ty can inform residents of the best times of year to visit nearby Toccoa Falls or the Appalachian Trail, as well provide a list of the “must-do’s,” whether they have one hour or one day to spend.

Within Currahee Club’s gates, Ty can also arrange an all-night slumber party for children in Currahee Club’s teepees – complete with roasted marshmallows and ghost stories -- or a private ride in the new Currahee Club hot air balloon just as the sun is beginning to set. “By taking care of the details, whether it be a picnic overlooking the Blue Ridge Mountains for parents, story telling around a campfire for kids or a family hiking trip, we’re allowing residents to do what they came to Currahee Club to do – de-stress and relax,” says Ty. “And that is what Currahee Club is all about.”

Ty Wheeler is an avid mountain biker and rock climber, with a passion for the outdoors. He currently resides in Demorest, GA with his wife Kelly and their four children.
